

Rotary's Good Work: A Century of Civic Service

2 billion +

Children immunized against polio

$1.193 billion

Spent on Rotary Programs, 1936-2001

1 million +

Rotary members who have volunteered their time and resources during polio National Immunization Days

$500 million

Estimated contributions by Rotary members to eradicate polio by 2005

200,000 +

Students sent on Youth Exchange programs

$80 million

Given to support Group Study Exchange programs

42,000

Group Study Exchange participants sent abroad

$69 million

Approved for Health, Hunger and Humanity
(3-H) Grants

34,000

Scholarships granted to students worldwide

$10 million

Grants for Rotary Volunteers
since 1979

13,500

Matching Grants awarded for international humanitarian projects

